DESIGN SPRING

The New Collectibles

BOWLED OVER

An enameled metal bowl from Kiln Enamel offers a fresh take on the Arts and Crafts aesthetic. $200 at Moss, 146 Greene Street.

HAVING A BALL

The Pendulette Boule clock is based on an antique model in the Hermès museum but looks up to the minute. $3,300 at Hermès stores nationwide. Call (800) 441-4488.

A SIMPLE PLAN

The Ornamental Flowerbed decoupage tray is taken from a 19th-century garden design but looks abstract enough for a modern room, $165 at John Derian, 6 East Second Street.

THROUGH A GLASS BRIGHTLY

Between its floral motif and anise-green color, this crystal vase from Lalique's Bucolique collection is the picture of spring. $750 at Lalique, 712 Madison Avenue.

BENCHMARK

With its teak frame and outdoor fabric upholstery, the Louis Soleil settee, designed by John Hutton for Sutherland, braves the great outdoors in style. To the trade only. Go to www.sutherlandteak.com.
